VERONA NEWS.

From the Advocate
George F. Strawn and wife left Thursday for Pecos, Texas. They will also visit relatives in Carlsbad, N. M., while away.

Mrs. J. M. Deschler and Miss Marie Hill left Thursday for Vinita, Okla., to visit relatives.

The marriage of Mr. D. C. Brashears of McKinley, and Miss Julia Lundy of Verona was solemnized Wednesday morning by Rev. Simpson at the Court House in Mt. Vernon. They were accompanied to Mt. Vernon by the bride's sister, Miss Lula Lundy who witnessed the ceremony. Mr. Brashears is a young farmer of McKinley where he took his bride Thursday morning.

A FEW "TREE DON'TS"

Don't tie your horse to a tree.
Don't carve your initials on it.
Don't peel its bark.
Don't cut a valuable hardwood sapling for a fishpole. Buy a bamboo pole for 20 cents, instead.
Don't start a forest fire.
Don't let the electric light, telephone or trolley men hack or mutilate a tree.
Don't cut down an old tree that is a landmark, even if it is on your property. Such a tree, like the air and sunshine, belongs to the world, not to an individual, though the law may not say so.—Country Life in America.

Don't squander your money on cheap household goods, buy the best and be satisfied. You will find the best at the lowest possible price at Bob Callaway's.

Thousands Dying

Every day from kidney, bladder and rheumatic trouble. Why suffer death, when $1 bottle, a sixty days treatment of Hall's Texas Wonder seldom fails to cure; by druggists or by mail, T. W. Hall, 2126 Olive St. St. Louis.

THE WOMAN'S HOME COMPANION FOR NOVEMBER

At this exact moment, houses are being renovated, wardrobes being replenished, and Christmas, in a measure, anticipated. Add to this bit the great holiday of Thanksgiving, now upon us, and we realize that there is need of counsel and suggestion. The November Woman's Home Companion seems to take all these points into more than careful consideration, and presents to the public a remarkable magazine, which besides being rich in itself gives a most vivid promise of what the Christmas issue will be.
